Canada Day 2011

Granville Island is bursting at the seams with culturally diverse national pride. Around every corner you'll find entertainment, artwork and food that allows you to wrap yourself in the flag and embrace the rich tapestry of our multicultural nation.

FEATURES

12th Annual Canada Day Parade | FREE

Participate in the most colourful parade ever! This year we have The Carnival Band, spectacular stilt dancers, lion dancers and you! Join in with your decorated bike at the end of the parade so stilt dancers can safely lead the way. Prize for most creative bike. Get ready to cheer!
1:30pm – 2pm Starting at Ocean Construction and ending at Ron Basford Park

Official Canada Day Ceremony | FREE

Make sure you exercise those vocal chords so you can belt out our national anthem loud and proud! Starts with the anthem and ends with Canada Day cake for kids, compliments of the Dockside Restaurant.
2pm – 2:30pm Ron Basford Park, Johnston Street

MELA! Festivals & Granville Island present International Pavilion

Join Mela! to celebrate cultures from around the world! Visitors, get ready to be transported into a lively bazaar filled with music, dance, arts, crafts and of course, mouth-watering food from around the globe! Featured performer is Canadian singer, songwriter Stef Lang. For performance times and information go to www.melafestivals.ca
11am – 7pm Under the Crane, East of Emily Carr University of Art and Design

Children's Pavilion | FREE

Jou Tou | Jou Tou is a supergroup of world musicians lending their formidable chops to French music from around the globe. The band's name derives from the French words "joue tout" which means play everything and indeed, the group's repertoire includes everything from French and North African music to Gypsy, French Caribbean and Québécois songs. Performances are in French and English. "They bring the world to your doorstep!"
11am & 12:45pm Picnic Pavilion

Jacky's Village | Jacky Essombe and friends perform dance, virtuoso percussion, and call-and-response singing from the African countries of Cameroon, Guinea and Zimbabwe. Performances are in French and English.
1:45pm – 3:30pm Picnic Pavilion

FEATURES continued

Voiliers Spectacle | FREE

On a voyage around the world, French acrobats Franck and Delphine are sailing into Vancouver to present two unusual silent productions, using mast, boom, ridding and other parts of their sailboat as stage to exhibit their acrobatics prowess.

The Navigators | Inspired by silent films, this parody of navigational manoeuvres pokes fun at the mishaps of maladroit navigators.
5:30pm – 5:50pm View from the steps behind the Public Market

Entre Île et Aile | This performance deals with male-female relationships in a spectacle of aerial choreography and acrobatics. A duet that ranges from love, humour and poetry to earth, sea and sky.
7:30pm – 7:50pm View from the steps behind the Public Market
(See granvilleisland.com for additional show times)
